

LEVEL 3 DIPLOMA
in CRYSTAL HEALING THERAPY

CTC accredited

ABOUT THE COURSE

An in-depth course aiming to give a comprehensive understanding of the theory and practice of crystal healing and the properties and uses of semi- precious stones.

Designed for therapists wanting to develop their intuitive healing potential to an advanced level, and seeking to learn new skills in crystal healing. Also suitable for those who have an interest in crystals and healing and would like to train as a crystal healing therapist.

Based on 20 tuition days, usually one weekend per month the course combines theory and practical exercises with home study and written work. Students create a portfolio of learning evidence, assignments and case studies. A certificate to practise is received after completion of the course criteria.

On-line Option

Students attend on- line tuition sessions and receive tutor phone tutorials. Homework and resources are sent and received remotely by email. Students must be able to collate and upload video evidence of their practical work to the tutor. One day's attendance at a physical venue may be necessary for External Quality Assurance

Level 2 Knowledge of Anatomy & Physiology is required criteria for the course. This is studied alongside the crystal course if need be and costs £65 for an easy to use folder/ CD supplied by the college

On completion of the course each student will receive a professional certificate to practice. CTC (Crystals Therapies Council) is the umbrella organization for all the regulated crystal schools in the UK and ensures national standards in training are met for this course.
